Southwest Airlines announces Sunday only nonstop service between Harlingen and Dallas/Love

(Harlingen, Texas – May 30, 2019) Today, Southwest Airlines published their much anticipated late fall and early winter schedule that includes new Sunday only nonstop flight between Dallas/Love and Harlingen. The new flight will depart Harlingen on Sundays at 6:40pm arriving nonstop in Dallas at 8:05pm. The return flight will depart Dallas on Sundays at 12:35pm arriving in Harlingen at 2:05pm.

“The new nonstop flight between Dallas and Harlingen on Sundays, offers great times for both local and connecting traffic. Those returning to Dallas can enjoy a “stretched” weekend stay in the RGV with this 6:40pm departure to Dallas”, said José Mulet, director of air service development at Valley International Airport. “The Dallas-Ft Worth metroplex is one of our top five destinations. VIA is proud to be the only airport to offer convenient service between the RGV and both airports in the Greater Dallas and Houston area” , Mulet added.

About Valley International Airport - Valley International is the largest airport in South Texas. Nearly 650,000 passengers and visitors walk through our terminal annually. Southwest Airlines offers nonstop service from Harlingen to Austin, and Houston/Hobby. United Express offers nonstop service to Houston Intercontinental. Delta Air Lines and Sun Country Airlines offers seasonal service to Minneapolis/St. Paul. Swift Airlines and Sun Country Airlines offer casino charters year round.
