South Padre Island Now Open Following Storm Recovery Efforts

(South Padre Island, Texas October 28, 2019) -- South Padre Island officials have good news: with power now fully restored and Padre Boulevard open, the Island is back up and running. All scheduled events, including the South Possibility Island Weekend, SPI Farmer's Market, the SPI Mariachi Run, and more will be taking place as planned. The beach is in great condition.

The following fun events are taking place on the Island and the surrounding area in the coming week:

November 1: South Possibility Island Weekend -The possibilities are boundless when a community joins together for a common purpose. That common purpose is to roll out the "Red Carpet" for all families and individuals with disabilities. Fishing's Future Founder, Shane Wilson, organized this unique and inaugural weekend and is championing efforts to see that Island businesses, elected officials, and residents of South Padre Island open their arms to welcome these families.

November 2: 2019 SPI Mariachi Run 5k/10k - The South Padre Island Mariachi Run 5k/10k is making running & walking fun by infusing the course with live mariachi groups playing along the routes! Everyone is invited to participate in the SPI Mariachi Run...from speed demons, casual runners and even walkers.

November 2: Port Isabel Shrimp Cook-Off and Seafood Festival - Dozens of contestants and thousands of attendees will be treated to world-famous shrimp recipes and a variety of family entertainment at the Port Isabel Shrimp Cook-Off & Seafood Festival. The Festival is a favorite among area residents and visitors and tests the skills of amateur and professional chefs from throughout the Rio Grande Valley.
